

HISPANIC HERITAGE SERIES

Day Trip

Cuban Heritage Tour

To register: 305-919-5900

Day Trip

This tour is the compelling story of the Cuban people of Miami who transformed the city in many ways, through three distinct periods. In this fascinating journey through time, we will learn how the Cuban emigration affected the cultural, political and economic landscape of the city. We will visit pertinent locations that mark relevant portions of the story, including the Freedom Tower, Little Havana, Cuban Memorial Boulevard and La Ermita. We will also enjoy some typical Cuban foods along the way.

Details

Wednesday

October 23

11:00 am – 3:00 pm

$49

Instructor

Erin Ross is a professional, private tour guide and a certified speaker through Toastmasters International. She was raised in Miami Beach, is a graduate of the F.I.U. School of Hospitality Management, and also studied at the famed "Second City" Training Center in Hollywood, CA. She has been leading a variety of cultural and historical tours for of Miami for over 6 years, and is leading provider on AirBnB Experiences.

at

FIU
FLORIDA
INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at FIU
305.919.5900 | olli@fiu.edu | <https://olli.fiu.edu>
3000 Northeast 151 Street, North Miami, FL 33181