

Dade Road Trip

To register: 305-919-5900

Course

Feel like a road trip? Join Sylvia Gurinsky on a journey through Greater Miami's iconic roadside tourist attractions of years past. From odd structures and wax figures to space-bound primates and sea-bound planes, you'll experience the places - and how social and demographic changes played a role in the vacation experience.

Details

Thursday

November 14

12:30 – 2:00 pm

$10

Instructor

Born in Miami, Sylvia Gurinsky is a history consultant, tour guide and freelance writer who works with Context Travel, Florida International University and other lifelong learning programs, as well as the Girls Empowerment and Mentoring program at the Women's Park in Miami. She co-hosts the television series "Roadside Florida" for the Lynn & Louis Wolfson Florida Moving Image Archives. She has worked as an educator and tour guide at History Miami Museum and was a journalist at WPLG-Channel 10 and the Jewish Journal. She is a proud FIU alumna.

at

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at FIU
305.919.5900 | olli@fiu.edu | <https://olli.fiu.edu>
3000 Northeast 151 Street, North Miami, FL 33181