

Strange Cases

To register: 305-919-5900

Course

Real cases. True stories. Very entertaining! This 3-part series will be based on over 60 years of law practice by one of Florida's most creative attorneys, Lewis Ress. Based on his book, Strange Cases and Wild Tales, Mr. Ress will recount some of his most exhilarating cases. From slips and trips to multi-million-dollar land deals and frozen felines, attendees are sure to be surprised, educated, and entertained. This quick-witted attorney will keep you grasping for more as he recounts some of the craziest claims, surprising outcomes, and memorable days as a Florida attorney.

Details

Tuesdays

11/19, 12/3, & 12/10

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

$30

Instructor

Lewis M. Ress graduated from Cornell Law School and has been practicing law for over 60 years. His law firm is located in North Miami where he specializes in litigation and mediation. Mr. Ress is the author of Strange Cases and Wild Tales, which was released in March 2019. He also hosts a monthly podcast titled Miami Memoirs – Strange Cases and Wild Tales.

at

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at FIU
305.919.5900 | olli@fiu.edu | <https://olli.fiu.edu>
3000 Northeast 151 Street, North Miami, FL 33181