Virtual Course	F	5/5-6/9	6	12:30 PM	2:00 PM	The Colonial Art of Latin America	Journey through Latin America from the Caribbean and Mesoamerica to the west coast of South America. Together we will explore the artwork and worldview of pre-Columbian cultures before examining these cultures' profound transformation during colonization. Prepare to be awed by the beauty and complexity of artistic masterpieces and moved by the stories they tell us as we witness the power of art as an act of resistance, a colonial force, and cultural preservation at times within the same artwork. As Europe and America meet, a transatlantic visual culture emerges, and a global exchange begins. See these artworks and cultures like never before and examine how they continue influencing our world today.	Hugh Leeman	$125	$100
Virtual Activity	T	5/9	1	11:30 AM	1:00 PM	Conversation Circle	Meet up with other inquisitive adults who are at least 50 years of age to discuss various topics. No preparation needed. Engaging conversation with no politics, no religion, and no current affairs.		$10	$0
Virtual Lecture	TH	5/11	1	10:30 AM	12:00 PM	Germany and Israel - an unlikely Friendship	In 1965 Germany and Israel reluctantly entered into diplomatic relations. What at first glance seems to be a rather unlikely relationship—especially in light of the shared history—has evolved over time into a blossoming friendship and successful economic bond. On the occasion of Israel's 75th birthday, join your new OLLI Program Director Anette Isaacs as she discusses the fascinating history of German- Israeli relations.	Anette Isaacs	$20	$10

Virtual Lecture	TH	6/15	1	10:30 AM	12:00 PM	Robert Carter III: An Alternative to Slavery	In 1791 Robert Carter III walked into the Northumberland District Courthouse and recorded a "deed of gift," thus performing an act of personal courage unequalled by his contemporaries or those who came after him. This document freed over 450 slaves, more than any other slave owner freed prior to the Civil War. Learn about this brave and bold man who showed others how to escape the evil of slave ownership, a message lost on the other founders and his own family. Find out how he went even further in his relationships with the formerly enslaved and disproved the arguments of the leading Founders for relocation, gradualism, and nullification.	Rebecca Staton-Reinstein	$20	$10
